Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

In the past, people found natural ways to protect themselves from difficult climates. In cold, wet places, traditional houses were often low with thick walls and small windows that faced away from the wind and rain. In the hot, dry Middle East, the thick, white walls of traditional houses protected people from the sun's heat.

Today, most people have moved to live in modern buildings. But we still need somewhere away from the outside world, a place to relax with family and friends. We want our house to be a home – a safe, happy, comfortable place.

When we have known a happy family home, we never forget it. Even if life takes us far away, we always remember that special place. In the words of the old saying: 'East or west, home is best'.
